Enjoy the special 100th Anniversary celebration at this great baseball stadium, home of the IronPigs, Triple-A affiliate of the 2008 Championship Philadelphia Phillies. Watch the live broadcast of the 2010 National Jamboree's Closing Arena Show on the park's JUMBO outfield screen. There is no game this evening so Scouting has the entire park for this celebration with music, activities, presentations, and the Jamboree Arena Show. Activities for Scouts, families, friends and volunteers will take place on the concourse level with gates opening at 5:30 p.m. and the evening wrapping up with a fireworks show about 10:00 p.m. Activities planned include:

- a live band piped over the stadium's sound system and video displays
- a Cub-friendly Kid Zone with inflatable attractions and similar climb-on, slide-down, and jump-in activities
- Scout-friendly displays and hands-on exhibits
- a parade of flags where units will be able to show their colors as they parade around the field
- appearances and audience photo ops with team mascots
- T-shirt blaster give-a-ways (with shirts "blasted" from the ball field into the stands)
- A special guest appearance from Lord Baden-Powell
- if that wasn't enough, there will be a fireworks display to close the evening
