HALL OF LEADERSHIP

Has a Scout, leader, or other Scouting volunteer made a significant difference at some time in your life, or the lives of others, by the extraordinary service they have given and the Scouting virtues they have modeled? You can thank and recognize them with a nomination to the BSA 100th Anniversary National Hall of Leadership!

Submit your entry online within the Hall of Leadership section of www.Scouting.org/100years. All entries are in the form of stories that are 450 words or less. The nomination period begins February 8, 2009 and ends February 8, 2010 – the 100th Anniversary of Scouting. Share your story today in a national archive of Scouting leaders!
