2009 National Youth Leadership Training

April 2009

Minsi Trails Council to run National Youth Leadership Training (NYLT) Course.

What's new this year? The Minsi Trails Council will be sponsoring a two Troop course in 2009 to provide additional opportunities for the Scoutmasters to train your youth leaders. The National Youth Leadership Training (NYLT) course supports Scoutmasters in their primary responsibility of training youth leaders. The Minsi Trails Council will offer the two weekend course in April, 2009.

Built on the legacy of past youth leader training courses, NYLT integrates the best of modern leadership theory with the traditional strengths of Scouting experience. Through activities, presentations, challenges, discussions, and audio-visual support, NYLT participants will be engaged in a unified approach to leadership that will give them the skills and confidence to lead well. Through a wide range of activities, events, games, and adventures, NYLT participants will work and play together as they put into action the best that Scouting has to offer

The course is set up to represent a month in the life of a Scout Troop. Patrols experience the stages of team development. Scouts discover that leadership requires vision, goals, and planning. Participants are provided a "toolbox" of leadership skills.

The National Youth Leadership Training is an outdoor experience for boy leaders in support of the Scoutmaster's responsibility for the training of Troop youth leaders. It is conducted by the council leadership training committee using an outline approved by the Boy Scout Division of the Boy Scouts of America.

Commissioner's Corner

The past four or five months have been a period of transition for me. Not only did I leave The Morning Call and begin teaching at Northampton Community College, but I also agreed to become Minsi Trails' Council Commissioner. My tenure as South Mountain District Commissioner concluded at the end of January.

Serving our District as a Commissioner for the last three or so years has been an education and a source of great satisfaction. It has given me a deeper understanding of the value of Scouting to not only the lives of our young people but also to their families and the broader community. We often think of Boys Scouts in terms of fun, exciting outdoor experiences, and of young men learning values and skills that can serve them for the rest of their lives and help them become Eagle Scouts. However, at a more fundamental level, Scouting is about fostering healthy, constructive relationships between Scouts and their families and all of us with each other and our communities. It's about citizenship and the future.

The South Mountain District has made great strides in the last few years. Make no mistake, the momentum for this progress started long before I joined the Commissioner's staff. It started with dozens upon dozens of volunteers serving their units and the District to provide our youth with quality programs and opportunities. Many of these people have served as role models not only for our youth but to people such as myself. As testament to their service, a number of them were recognized last week at the annual Council Dinner with the Silver Beaver award. Half of the eight Scouters recognized by the Council were from the South Mountain District, including Troop 362 Scoutmaster Jim Roberts, Order of the Arrow Adviser David Hay and Venturing Adviser John Arno. Because of the work of individuals such as these, South Mountain District is likely to become a Centennial Quality District for the second year in a row - something no other district in the Minsi Trails Council has accomplished.

This is something all of you can be proud of - and it is something to continue to work towards for this year and in succeeding years. In these challenging times, that will take a lot of effort - from all of you. So get involved, get trained and continue providing our youth with great programs!

The really good news, however, is that South Mountain District will be getting a really quality individual as its new District Commissioner. He is Dr. Michael Dolan, a longtime member of the Commissioner staff and a longtime Assistant Scoutmaster for Troop 359. Mike is also deeply involved in the Order of Arrow and is serving as the adviser to OA Witauchsoman Lodge contingent that will attend the National Order of the Arrow Conference this summer at Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind. I have known Mike for years and his dedication to Scouting and our youth is second to none. But he will need your help! He will need more of you to step up to serve as Unit Commissioners to help Packs, Troops and Crews succeed. Please consider doing so. Let either Mike or District Executive Amy Frantz know of your interest. It's a rewarding job.

I may be moving on to serving at the Council level, but I will not be a stranger to the South Mountain District. I will remain involved in my home unit, Troop 335, and I will show up at District events. Look for me and other commissioners at the Klondike Derby on Feb. 21. We'll be selling hot dogs and other refreshments. Until then I remain yours in Scouting.

Eric Chiles,
former South Mountain District Commissioner
