Venturing at Dutch Springs

June 6-7, 2009

Scuba Weekend for Venturers at Dutch Springs Here's a great opportunity for your crew to hone their scuba skills or try a new adventure. Dutch Springs, one of the area's largest diving quarries/centers, near Allentown, Pa., is hosting a special Venturing weekend on June 6 and 7.

Certified divers and those interested in diving can spend the weekend at Dutch Springs for only $15 (normally $75) this includes camping and a night dive. Certified divers must bring proof of certification and their own diving gear.

A "Try Scuba" program is being offered for non certified crew members for an additional $25. This includes the wet suits and all life support equipment for a 1 hour session with a NAUI Instructor.

The Aqua Park, Rock Climbing Wall and other activities at Dutch Springs will be available, too.

The event is being organized through NorthStar Adventure @ Dutch Springs. For more information call 610-759-2270. Reservations are required and spaces are being filled on a first come, first served basis.

A flier with additional information is attached to the newsletter.

2010 National Jamboree

Registrations for our 100th Anniversary Jamboree at Ft. A.P. Hill have been brisk. Councils are actively promoting this historic event.

The following information will be helpful:

1. Those applying for council troop leader positions should ONLY apply for that role. Individuals NOT selected may then call the Jamboree Division and request that the application be switched to Jamboree staff consideration. No additional application fee is required. Do not apply twice. Before you apply please check with the Council to see if any Council positions are currently open.
2. Anyone who has completed earlier versions of Wood Badge will have met the Wood badge requirement for staff positions requiring same.
3. Local Council Jamboree staff advisors will receive periodic updates from the region and the BSA's Jamboree website will continue to be updated as well. This Jamboree, our last at Ft. A.P. Hill, promises to be the most exciting yet.

Note: The council may still have spots open.

Eagle Scout Rank –Service Project

At a recent Service Leadership Project review by the District Eagle Scout Board there was a question by a troop about the projects requirements. What follow is the official rules in the Advancement Policy and Procedures manual.

For a service project to qualify as an Eagle Scout service project, the Scout, while a Life Scout, must plan, develop, and give leadership to others in a service project benefiting any religious institution, school, or community. These projects, of course, must conform to the wishes and regulations of those for whom the project is undertaken. The Eagle Scout service project provides the opportunity for the Eagle Scout candidate to demonstrate the leadership skills he has learned in Scouting. He does the project outside the sphere of Scouting.

As a demonstration of leadership, the Scout must plan the work, organize the personnel needed, and direct the project to its completion.

Eagle Scout projects should be about service to others. Guidelines to follow include:

- An Eagle Scout project involving council property or other BSA activities is not acceptable.
- An Eagle Scout project may not be performed for a business.
- An Eagle Scout project may not be of a commercial nature.
- An Eagle Scout project may not be a fundraiser.
- Fund-raising is permitted only for securing materials needed to carry out the project.
- Donors to Eagle Scout projects must be made aware of what entity is benefiting from the project, and that it clearly is not the Boy Scouts of America.
- Any funds raised for an Eagle Scout project that are not used for the purchase of project materials must be returned to the donor.

Routine labor, a job or service normally rendered, should not be considered. There is no minimum number of hours that must be spent on carrying out the project. The amount of time spent must be sufficient for the Scout to clearly demonstrate leadership skills.

The most current Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook, must be used to meet this requirement.

The Scout must secure the prior approval of his unit leader, his unit committee, and the benefactor of the project. The project must also be reviewed and approved by the district or council advancement committee or their designee to make sure that it meets the stated standards for Eagle Scout service projects before the project is started. This preapproval of the project does not mean that the board of review will approve the way the project was carried out.

Upon completion of the project, the Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook, properly filled out, is submitted with the Scout's Eagle application to include the following information.

- What was the project?
- How did it benefit others?
- Who from the group benefiting from the project gave guidance?
- Who helped carry out the project?
- What materials were used and how were they acquired?

Although the project idea must be approved before work is begun, the board of review must determine the manner in which the project was carried out. Questions that must be addressed include:

- Did the candidate demonstrate leadership of others?
- Did he indeed direct the project rather than do all of the work himself?
- Was the project of real value to the religious institution, school, or community group?
- Who from the group benefiting from the project may be contacted to verify the value of the project?
- Did the project follow the approved plan or were modifications needed to bring it to its completion?

South Mountain District News

Minsi Trails Council. B.S.A.

June 2009

All the work on the project must be done while the candidate is a Life Scout and before the candidate's 18th birthday, unless a time extension has been allowed

The Eagle Scout service project is an individual matter; therefore, two Eagle Scout candidates may not receive credit for working on the same project.

The variety of service projects performed throughout the nation by Scouts earning their Eagle Award is staggering. For ideas and opportunities regarding service projects, the Scout can consult people such as school administrators, religious leaders, local government department directors, or a United Way agency's personnel.

The district or council advancement committee also can be helpful by identifying possible projects.

A periodic review of the progress of a Scout is vital in the evaluation of the effectiveness of the Scouting program in the unit. The unit committee can judge how well the Scout being reviewed is benefiting from the program. The unit leader can measure the effectiveness of his or her leadership.

The Scout can sense that he is, or is not, advancing properly and can be encouraged to make the most of his Scouting experience.

Not only is it important to review those Scouts who have learned and been tested for a rank, but also to review those Scouts who have shown no progress in their advancement over the past few months.

The review is not an examination; the board does not retest the candidate. Rather, the board should attempt to determine the Scout's attitude and his acceptance of Scouting's ideals. The board should make sure that good standards have been met in all phases of the Scout's life. A discussion of the Scout Oath and Scout Law is in keeping with the purpose of the review, to make sure that the candidate recognizes and understands the value of Scouting in his home, unit, school, and community.

The decision of all boards of review is arrived at through discussion and must be unanimous.

When a boy satisfactorily completes his board of review for a rank or an Eagle Palm, tenure for his next rank or Eagle Palm begins immediately.

Troop 364 Religious Award

Adam Weaver from Troop 364 has received his religious emblem of the God and Life at a service on Sunday, May 17, 2009 at St. Paul's Lutheran (Blue) Church. He is also the 39th Boy Scout in the state of PA to be a four star recipient of the religious awards. He has completed the series of the religious emblems which start in Cub Scouts with God and Me, Webs.- God and Family, and Boy Scouts- God and Church.

For mentors who have assisted in the P.R.A.Y. program, there is an award titled Building Faith in Youth award. The person needs to be a mentor for at least 3 consecutive years to boys who are working on their religious awards along with other criteria. The Rev. Mark E. Swanson (IH of Cub Pack 364 and Pastor of Blue Church) was a recipient of this award on Sunday,

Nazareth Trail Challenge – OA Scoutreach Mentors

Seven volunteers from Tunkhannock chapter of OA Lodge #44 mentored several Scout Reach units on a 5 mile historical hike in and around Nazareth this past Saturday. We all enjoyed good weather, with temperatures in the 70s, a light breeze, and partly cloudy skies. Each Scout gathered information from cultural and historic sites along the route to earn his Nazareth Trail Challenge award. At trail's end, by the tower in Holy Family Cemetary overlooking the boro, we enjoyed a picnic lunch.

TWILIGHT CUB DAY CAMP AT COOPERSBURG LIVING MEMORIAL PARK

June 15-19, 2009

Come join the "NIGHT SENSE" with all your friends.

Activities range from BB, Archery, Swimming, Crafts, Games, Scout Skills, a Twilight Hike and special guests from the Wildlands Conservancy.

The cost for the week of June 15-19, 2009 is $75 for the whole week and only $45 if a parent volunteers for the whole week.

This fun filled week starts at 5 PM and runs to 8:30 PM each day.

Any questions, contact Marci Weaver, Program Director at smiley9@ptd.net or 610.282.0921.

Day Camp Incentives

One of the most anticipated experiences for a boy in Scouting is to attend camp. Scouts that attend camp are more likely to stay in Scouting and benefit from the positive impact Scouting has upon youth. Minsi Trails Council offers several camping opportunities for Cub Scouts: Family Camping, Discovery Weekends (weekend overnight camping), Resident Camp (week-long overnight camping), and Day Camp. Be sure every Scout in your Pack has the chance to attend camp this summer.

This year, Minsi Trails Council has put together an incentive plan to increase the number of Cub Scouts that attend Day Camp in 2009. We are encouraging Packs that are already attending Day Camp together by offering a monetary incentive. The incentive is based on an increase in the number of adults and youth currently attending Day Camp (not including youth and adults signed up as of today). Packs that are not already signed up to attend together can qualify when they turn in their new pack registration forms. Please see the scale below detailing incentive levels.

Level # of Youth and Adults Attending Day Camp

Incentive Amount

1	8 Cub Scouts + 2 Adults	=	$25
2	16 Cub Scouts + 3 Adults	=	$75
3	24 Cub Scouts + 4 Adults	=	$150
4	32 Cub Scouts + 5 Adults	=	$250

(Incentives will be deposited into Pack accounts at the Council Service Center by August 31).

(To qualify for the incentives, Cub Scout and adult attendance must equal the #'s listed at each level. Example, if 9 Cub Scouts and 3 Adults attend, the Pack will receive $25 and not be bumped to the next level).

Please give an additional promotion effort in your Cub Scout Pack for the Cub Scouts and adults who are not yet signed up for Day Camp. Day Camp applications and medical forms for additional Day Camp enrollments can be found online at: <http://www.minsitrails.com/camping/CubScout/DayCamp/default.asp>. If you have any questions, please call Jane Chase @ 610-465-8568. We hope to see you at camp! Every Scout deserves a Summer Camp Experience!!!
